Reality is depicted as a man-made spectacle with porous confines and unstable definitions, an idea clearly highlighted in other films of his, such as The Best Offer, The Unknown Woman, A Pure Formality, and The Legend of By. By adopting a transnational and cross-disciplinary method of inquiry, he researches Italian literature and cinema, literary theory, Anglo-Italian studies, comparative literature, film and cultural studies. This is one of the most characteristic features of all the definitions that the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries put forward.
